

Officer Behavioral Agreement

Date: _____

Students Name: _____

In order for HOSA officers to benefit from their leadership roles, they must agree to successfully adhere to the HOSA officer chapter guidelines as well as their school and HOSA values laid out in their code of conduct. Detention, suspensions, skipping class and being written up will not be tolerated.

Officers will attend school every day unless with a parent or doctor note. Officers must maintain her current grades and GPA. Officers will need to keep a clean Facebook and Twitter accounts and any other social media's (cursing, hating their life, negative behavior). Officers will need to demonstrate to myself an active effort to be a part of the officer team.

Being an officer requires self-control. It's not just his/her local chapter that s/he is representing but the entire school and school district. How an officer acts is not only seen by their family and friends, but the entire state association and beyond. By this end of the officer's term, the HOSA member should be able to apply the leadership qualities and skills learned to almost any situations throughout their day-to-day activities, educational pathway, and career.

As of (date) _____, this student _____ (name) is on a Behavior Agreement as a HOSA chapter officer. The terms of the agreement are as follows:

1st time violation may result in an email or one on one conversation with the advisor.

2nd violation may result in contact with the officer's parents and/or the school administration.

3rd violation may result in removal of office.

All officers must friend/follow the local chapter advisor(s) on their social media.

By signing, I understand and concur to the terms of this agreement and will adhere to its content.

Being a HOSA officer is fun. The advisor understands that being on the team with different personalities may cause tension between the officers. This is what makes for a good team and positive outcomes by the compromises that we all demonstrate through the year. If any of you have issues, feel free at any time to talk the advisor. Each officer is unique will provide value to a successful officer team.
