ARTICLE IX

INDEMNIFICATION

Reference is made to Section 145 and any other relevant provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. Particular reference is made to the class of persons, hereinafter called "Indemnities", who may be indemnified by a Delaware corporation pursuant to the provisions of such Section 145, namely any person, or the heirs, executors, or administrators of such person, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party of any threatened, pending, or completed action suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a trustee, officer, employee or agent of such corporation or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The corporation shall, and is hereby obligated to, indemnify the Indemnities, and each of them, in each and every situation where the corporation is obligated to make such indemnification pursuant to the aforesaid statutory provisions. The corporation shall indemnify the Indemnities, and each of them, in each and every situation where, under the aforesaid statutory provisions, the corporation is not obligated, but is nevertheless permitted or empowered to make such indemnification with respect to any situation covered under this sentence (i) the corporation shall promptly make or cause to be made, by any of the methods referred to in subsection (d) of such Section 145, a determination as to whether each Indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and in the case of any criminal action or proceeding had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful, and (ii) that no such indemnification shall be made unless it is determined that such Indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonable believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, in the case of any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

ARTICLE X

PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the corporation in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, policies and procedures and any special rules of order the corporation may adopt.

ARTICLE XI

DISSOLUTION

Upon final dissolution or liquidation of this Association its State and territorial designated areas, and local chapters, and after final discharge or satisfaction of all outstanding obligations and liabilities, its remaining assets shall be disbursed by the Board of Directors of HOSA, Inc., in accordance with one or more of the purposes of this Association, or be transferred to a government instrumentality or a qualified exempt organization within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

ARTICLE XII
