

Veterinary Science: Post-Video Activity Sheet Answers

1. A Zoonotic disease is one that can jump between different species.
2. Having Perseverance allows veterinarians to push through challenges and succeed in their goals.
3. One Health is the connection between the health of humans, animals, and the environment.
4. To achieve the goals of the One Health movement, there needs to be a Teamwork approach.
5. Effective Communication is extremely important for veterinarians as it allows them to advocate for their patients, and educate owners about health issues.

1.	g	Small Animal	a. This type of vet works primarily with horses and animals raised for consumption purposes.
2.	c	Government	b. This type of vet cares for animals that are under the supervision of a research team.
3.	a	Large Animal	c. This type of vet works primarily with policy.
4.	d	Exotics	d. This type of vet works primarily with 'rarer' animals, such as birds, rodents and reptiles.
5.	b	Lab Animal	e. This type of vet helps to provide care to animals in times of disaster.
6.	f	Epidemiologist	f. This type of vet helps to monitor infectious diseases among animal and human populations.
7.	e	Disaster Response	g. This type of vet works primarily with cats, dogs, and other similar pets.